GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 6, 2025
Fifth Sunday of Lent

“The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle” (John 8:3). Why do they make her stand in the middle? Why not expose her on the periphery? The reason is something that affects us practically every day.

The center is what stabilizes a community’s identity. We humans tend to center ourselves around an accused and condemned victim — though we rarely admit it. This renews our fragile communities and our power as those who weaponize the accusation. This is effective because it is often a victim who represents something truly dangerous for the group. In this case, adultery stands for the breakdown of a community and those within it, because it forces questions like: who is my father? Whose child is this? Is this child one of us, or that of an outsider? The accusers place the adulteress in the center because their community, like most, is built around turning an enemy into a victim.

Once you understand this, you’ll see it almost anywhere humans group together (families, politics, workplaces, sports, schools, etc.). The good news is Jesus exposes this dynamic by deftly pointing out the sin-infected hearts of everyone besides the woman. They all leave, symbolizing the breakdown of the old order, and she is “left alone before him.” A new community has begun, structured around the merciful love of Christ.

What is in your center? What is in the center of our parish and family communities? Strive to center on Christ’s forgiveness, and we experience the new, lasting community we call the Church.

Sundays—1 hour before Mass

By Appointment with Fr. Trieu or Fr. Doug

While the minimum requirement is once a year, the Church encourages Catholics to confess frequently, even for venial sins, to foster a deeper relationship with God and receive spiritual healing. You can’t receive communion if you have a mortal sin. Missing mass is a mortal sin!

NEED LECTORS AND USHERS Minsters (Lectors & Ushers) needed at St. Mel’s, Holy Angels and ICC. Please contact Father Trieu, the Parish Office (575-376-2553) or Megan Quinn (mkquintx@gmail.com) for Holy Angels if you are interested in a Ministry. We can really use your help. We will train you.
